

Age to Come

By Geoff Lawn

G A D Bm
Sometimes the day seems dark as night
G A D Bm
And the victories are few
G A D Bm
Some days my strength is failing
G A D
So I hold on to you

Bridge

G A Bm G A D
Heaven is my home, my journeys end I know

Chorus

 D G D A
That in the age to come there will be no more crying
 D G D A
Every tear wiped away, no more sickness no disease
 G A Bm G A D
In the age to come, your house will be my home

Verse 2

G A D Bm
Questions hanging like mist
G A D Bm
Over a troubled sea
G A D Bm
Though the waves are breaking
G A D
You wont let go of me

Bridge

Chorus

 D G D A
That in the age to come, there will be no more crying
 D G D A
Every tear wiped away, no more sickness no disease
 D G D A
And the hope that we have, held by a thread some days
 D G D A
And that there is a place, that was worth waiting for
 D G D A
And that there is a place, that was worth waiting for
 G A Bm G A D
In the age to come, your house will be my home
